

Lord of the Flies

By William Golding

Lesson 7

LO: To analyse a setting description

Starter

Look at these pictures:

What do these objects represent?

What might they mean to a group of young boys (littluns) lost on a desert island?

Main Activities

Chapter

- ❁ Read the passage “The threat to the littluns”
- ❁ This passage shows a mood change and describes a setting.

❁ Answer the question related to this passage and comment on:

❁ The island

❁ The sea

❁ The creatures

❁ The boys

❁ The weather

❁ The vegetation

Plenary

- ✿ Write an email to an absent student explaining what you have learnt in this lesson.
- ✿ Focus on the childhood innocence of the littluns and the threat from the island setting.
