

Writing in an emotive style

Read pages 104-106 of Stone Cold, where Tanya's father is looking for her on the streets of London, but fails to find her.

Your task is to write in a very emotional manner as Tanya's father. Using the evidence from the novel, you should write his diary entry for the day. You could mention:

- Your feelings about not managing to find Tanya
- Your regrets about the reasons why she left home
- Your fears (or hopes?) about what has happened to her

Writing in an un-emotive style

Read pages 112-114 of Stone Cold, where the police go to visit Shelter whilst investigating Tanya's disappearance.

Your task is to write in a very rational and formal way (showing no emotions) the report that the officers will have filed when they returned to the police station. You could mention:

- The reason why you were questioning Shelter
- Your impressions about Shelter
- Your thoughts about the responses he gave to your questions
