

Lord of the Flies

By William Golding

Lesson 8

LO: To understand the rivalries that lead to conflict in the novel

Starter

- 🌸 Play a quick-fire quiz – 10 questions

Main Activities

Chapter

- ❁ Read pp80-94
- ❁ The conflict between Jack and Ralph grows as they argue over their priorities.
- ❁ Use the sheet – “You let the fire out”
- ❁ Here we will consider how the conflict grows and develops and how Jack and Ralph react to this conflict.

Plenary

🌸 Read final words of Ch4:

🌸 Ralph watched them, envious and resentful. Not till they flagged and the chant died away, did he speak.

🌸 'I'm calling an assembly.'

🌸 One by one, they halted, and stood watching him.

🌸 'With the conch. I'm calling a meeting even if we have to go on into the dark. Down on the platform. When I blow it. Now.' He turned away and walked off, down the mountain.

- ❁ Who is in charge now?
- ❁ Give your reasons for picking either Jack or Ralph.
- ❁ What is the role of the conch?
