

Blood Brothers

Lesson 12: Mickey and Edward

Mickey and Edward

Objectives:

To learn how the playwright contrasts the characters of Mickey and Edward.

Mickey and Edward

Mickey and Edward are contrasting characters.
How many examples of contrasts can you find?

Mickey	Edward
Poor	Wealthy

Contrasting Characters

Using your knowledge of the characters of Mickey and Edward write a paragraph explaining how Russell presents these contrasting characters to the audience.

You could use some of the sentence starters on the next slide to get you up and running.

November 2020

Mickey and Edward

Mickey and Edward are very different...

Contrasting Characters

What have you learned already about Mickey and Edward? Below are a few sentence starters to help with your paragraph:

November 2020

Mickey and Edward

The first difference we notice about Mickey and Edward is...

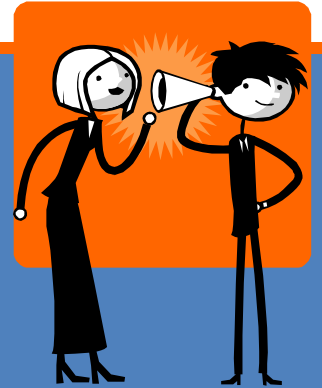

Mickey is...whilst Edward...

The way they speak conveys to the audience that...

The way they act towards one another gives us an insight into their relationship...

Plenary

Discuss your work with the rest of the group. Explain how you made deductions about Edward's and Mickey's characters.

Give 2 points each!