

Stone Cold – Shelters voice

What are your thoughts on homeless people now? You are to give one word that you think about homelessness.

Learning objective and learning outcomes

- Learning objective: By the end of the lesson, you will understand...
- What characteristics Shelter's narrative voice has
- What Shelter would write in his last chapter
- How Shelter would express his views

- Learning outcomes: By the end of the lesson, you will be able to...
- Explain the message that Swindells is making at the end of the novel
- Analyse what Shelter would write in his last chapter
- Evaluate how Shelter would express his writing orally

Write down
the underlined
words in bold!

Starter

Reminder of the end of the novel. What did you think of the ending??

Activity one

What message do you think Swindells is trying to make with the final line of the novel, "It's a free country, right?" What one question would you ask Shelter if you were the police? Why would you ask this?

Review one

What should I ask??

Learning objective and learning outcomes

- Learning objective: By the end of the lesson, you will understand...
- What characteristics Shelter's narrative voice has
- What Shelter would write in his last chapter
- How Shelter would express his views

- Learning outcomes: By the end of the lesson, you will be able to...
- ✓ Explain the message that Swindells is making at the end of the novel
- Analyse what Shelter would write in his last chapter
- Evaluate how Shelter would express his writing orally

Input two

Activity two

You are to discuss with the class and then plan a final chapter for Shelter to give his account of the events leading up to his arrest and his thoughts about them. What information do you think you have to include? You are to analyse the different options.

Review two

What are your ideas for the final chapter?

Learning objective and learning outcomes

- Learning objective: By the end of the lesson, you will understand...
- What characteristics Shelter's narrative voice has
- What Shelter would write in his last chapter
- How Shelter would express his views

- Learning outcomes: By the end of the lesson, you will be able to...
- ✓ Explain the message that Swindells is making at the end of the novel
- ✓ Analyse what Shelter would write in his last chapter
- Evaluate how Shelter would express his writing orally

Activity three

Using the same narrative style you are to write the first paragraph of Shelter's final chapter. How will you start it?? How do you think he would say it? You are to evaluate how he would express himself.

Review three

Turn to the person next to you and read them your opening paragraph in Shelter's narrative voice. How do you think he would sound?

Learning objective and learning outcomes

- Learning objective: By the end of the lesson, you will understand...
- What characteristics Shelter's narrative voice has
- What Shelter would write in his last chapter
- How Shelter would express his views

- Learning outcomes: By the end of the lesson, you will be able to...
- ✓ Explain the message that Swindells is making at the end of the novel
- ✓ Analyse what Shelter would write in his last chapter
- ✓ Evaluate how Shelter would express his writing orally

Consolidation phase

Thumbs up/thumbs down

- Learning objective: By the end of the lesson, you will understand...
- What characteristics Shelter's narrative voice has
- What Shelter would write in his last chapter
- How Shelter would express his views

- Learning outcomes: By the end of the lesson, you will be able to...
- Explain the message that Swindells is making at the end of the novel
- Analyse what Shelter would write in his last chapter
- Evaluate how Shelter would express his writing orally

